AMANIDA

A PLEASURE OF A GOOD & HEALTHY LIFE

Amanida is a family business founded in 1960 dedicated to the production of olives, pickles and vegetable preserves of high quality and differentiation.

Their unique products - primarily the Olives and Pickles are based upon 3 key elements: the best raw materials, selected ingredients, and marinades and special preparations.

They all combine to deliver surprisingly sophisticated culinary experiences and a Wow! in the consumer. At the same time, we successfully combine tradition, style and innovation at developing healthy vegan food products that belong to the well-known "Mediterranean Diet", declared as UNESCO World Heritage and tied to a healthy, social and pleasant way-of-life.
